HABILIN · TEAM CAELUS

When Alex Santos died on 1 September, his family's ₱15 million property froze with him.

Nothing can pass to the heirs until the estate tax is paid and BIR issues an eCAR. The family believes they own all of it. The title copy says half.

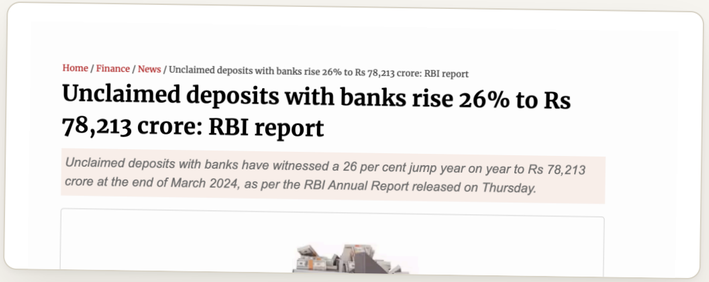

THE PROBLEM

The money exists. Paperwork keeps it stuck.

INDIA

Passing on one property takes nine steps at six kinds of office, and the tax is due within a year.

WHAT HABILIN IS

An agent that does the paperwork for the professional on the case.

The family’s authorized representative approves anything involving money. Fixed code, not the model, computes every amount.

it asks before it assumes

1 Gather
requests missing documents from the issuing office

2 Reconcile finds records that disagree and routes each to the right fix

3 Prepare builds the filing; fixed code computes every amount

4 Approve professional first, then the owner, bound to the exact amount

5 Submit and pay
files once, pays only the official office

6 Verify and close
done only on a receipt; personal data deleted at closure

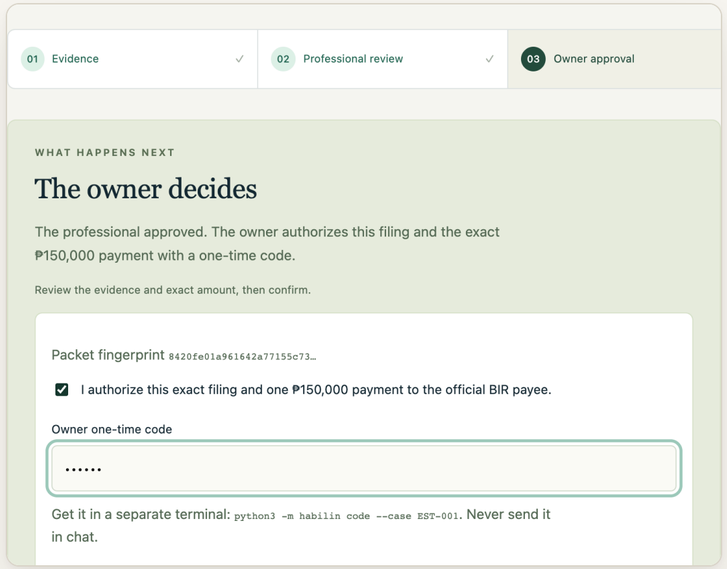

THE WORKING PRODUCT

One case, from a Taglish request to a verified receipt.

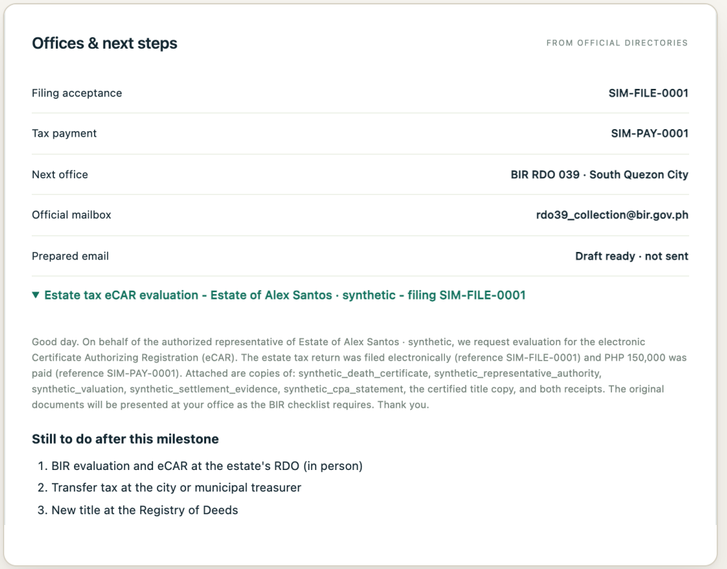

1 Title copy: 50%, not 100%

It obtains the certified title copy and flags the mismatch before any tax is computed.

2 Professional, then owner

Both approve the exact ₱150,000 packet. The owner adds a one-time code, never in chat.

3 Paid once, routed onward

A lost filing reply is reconciled, not refiled. The eCAR email is drafted to RDO 39, not sent.

SOURCED MATH AND ROUTING

Every peso comes from the law. Every office comes from BIR’s own directory.

ESTATE TAX COMPUTATION · ESTATE OF ALEX SANTOS

Property value at death	15,000,000.00
Decedent’s share — from the title copy →	50%
Gross estate	7,500,000.00
Less standard deduction	(5,000,000.00)
Net taxable estate	2,500,000.00
Tax rate	6%
Estate tax due	₱150,000.00

On the family’s 100% belief the same math gives ₱600,000.

The original documents will be presented at your office as the BIR checklist requires. Thank you.

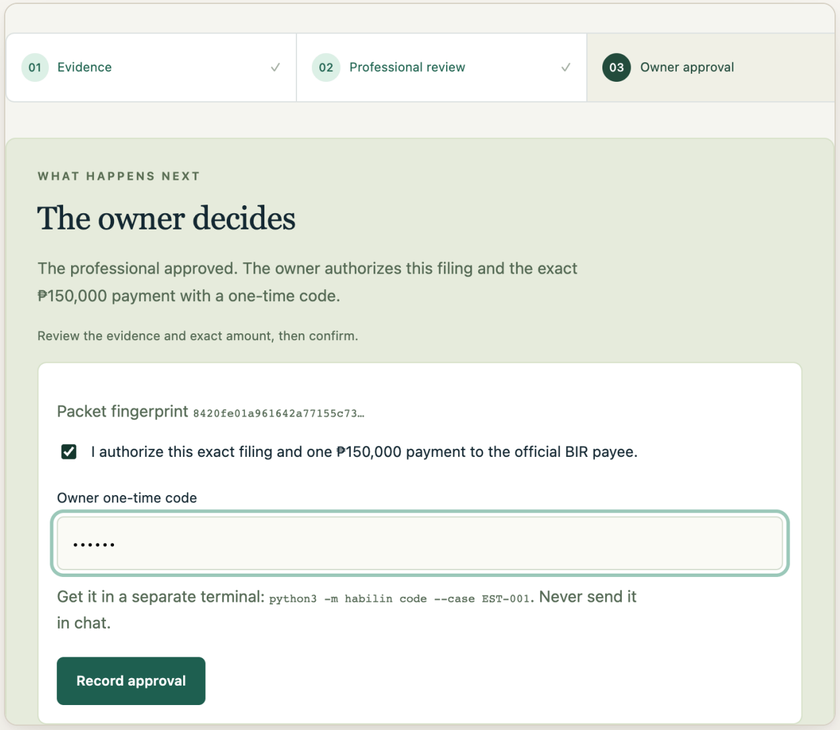

Still to do after this milestone

TRUST

It acts only on the right person’s approval, and forgets the family once the case closes.

refused, whatever the chat says

Two approvals, in order

Professional, then owner with a one-time code.

Bound to the exact packet

Amount, payee and evidence are fingerprinted; any change voids it.

Never a double charge

A lost reply means check the original, not file again.

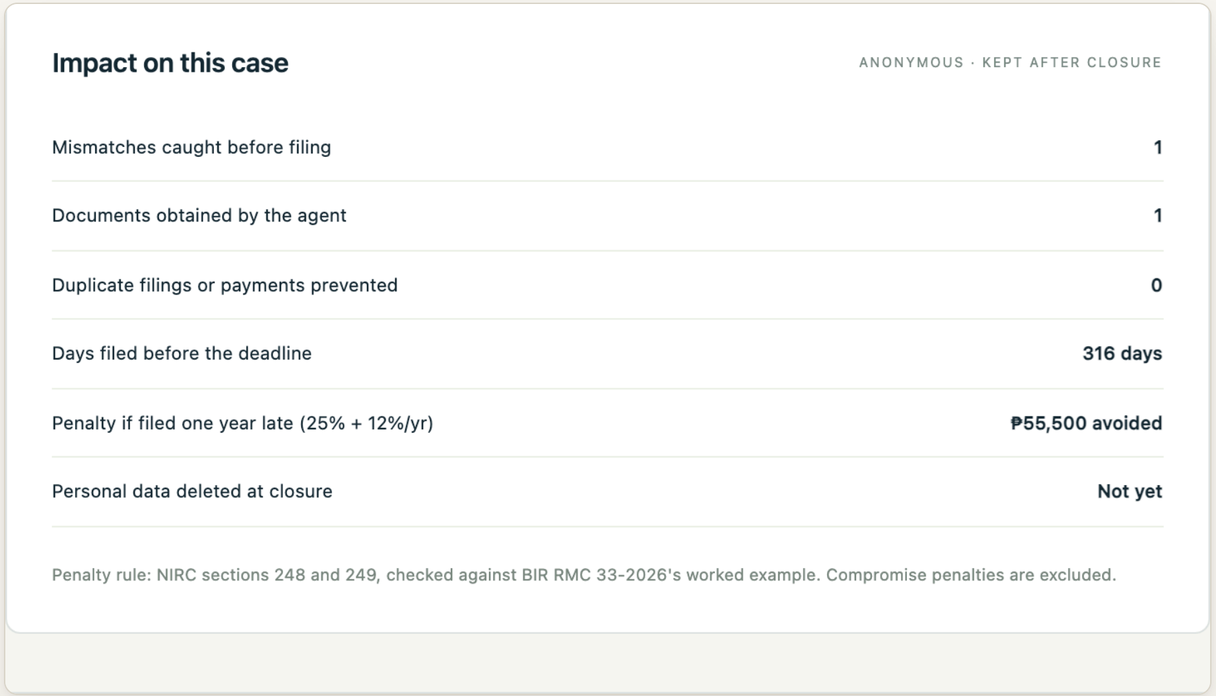

Deleted at closure

Personal records erased; receipts and fingerprints stay.

39 automated tests call the tools directly, past the chat: induced transfers, data extraction, privilege escalation, prompt injection.

IMPACT

Every case records what it changed, with no personal data needed.

SCOPE AND ROADMAP

What works today, and what comes next.

TODAY

One simple Philippine case, from a missing record to a verified estate-tax filing and payment, then closure with data deletion.

Every office is simulated and every person and document is synthetic. eCAR, transfer tax, the new title and the tax declaration stay open. Jev on TypeSafe only classifies text. Our track-topic fit is our own reading.

1 Finish the Philippine chain
eCAR, transfer tax, Registry of Deeds title, assessor

2 Real office channels
Email to the right BIR office, then BIR e-filing and ePay, PSA, LRA, e-notarization

3 Many cases per firm
Several properties, several generations

4 Process intelligence
Anonymous: which office takes how long, which documents go missing

5 Other countries
Through their own official rails. A synthetic UK inheritance-tax case already runs on the same engine.

THE ASK

For many families, estate tax is the biggest bill they will ever pay. Habilin gets it right.

A pilot

A Philippine estate lawyer or CPA practice, with consented cases.

Official channels

A path to BIR e-filing and ePay, LRA and PSA.
